Line 4b. Enter the Rhode Island income, and franchise taxes paid or accrued which are deducted on the federal return on Lines 2 or 17 for the taxable year. (Attach Schedule)

Line 4c. - Bonus Depreciation Adjustment - Please enter on this line bonus depreciation less normal depreciation.

Line 7. Schedule F--Allocation Factor

Line 1--Average Property Factor--The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average net book value of real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the taxable year in Rhode Island, and the denominator of which is the property owned or rented and used everywhere during the taxable year.

Real and tangible personal property owned is valued at book value. Real and tangible personal property rented is valued at eight (8) times the annual net rental rate. The annual net rental rate shall be reduced (but not to less than zero) by the annual rental rate received from subrentals.

"Tangible personal property" means such property as machinery, tools, implements, goods, wares, and merchandise. It does not include cash, shares of stock, bonds, notes, credits, or evidences of an interest in property and evidences of debt.

Line 2-Receipts Factor--(Line 2a) 100% allocation to Rhode Island of the gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property sold in the regular course of business where Rhode Island (or any other state or place) is the place of origin and Rhode Island is the destination. Sales of tangible personal property are in Rhode Island if the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state regardless of the free on board (F.O.B.) point or other conditions of the sale.

(Line 2a) Gross income from services is attributed to Rhode Island if the services are performed in Rhode Island.

(Line 2d) Gross rental income from the leasing or renting of real and tangible personal property.

(Line 2f) Net income from the sale of real property, tangible personal property, or other capital assets not held by the taxpayer for sale to customers in the regular course of business.

(Line 2g) Net income from the sale or disposition of securities or financial obligations. Do not include related dividends or interest. Dividends and interest are reported on Line 2(b) and 2(c).

(Line 2h) Gross income from all other receipts includes income from all other sources (not listed above) and includes (but is not limited to) receipts from patents, royalties, copyrights, commissions, dividends and interest. Gross income from royalties is attributable to Rhode Island to the extent that the patent or copyright is used in this state by the person paying royalties to the taxpayer. A patent is used in Rhode Island to the extent that it is employed in fabrication, manufacturing, production or other processing in Rhode Island or to the extent that a patented product is produced in Rhode Island. A copyright is used in Rhode Island to the extent that printing or other publication originates in Rhode Island. Accordingly, all such gross income should be included in Schedule F, Line 2(h), Column A. For corporations organized under Rhode Island laws, all gross income from interest and dividends must be shown on Schedule F, Lines 2(b&c), Column A.

Line 3--Salaries and Wage Factor--The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or incurred in Rhode Island during the taxable year for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or incurred everywhere during the taxable year.

Schedule F, Line 3, Column A represents that part of the total wages, salaries and other compensation to officers and employees paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year which is assignable to offices, agencies, or places of business within the State of Rhode Island, or which is attributable to services performed in connection with the taxpayer's activities or transactions within this state during the taxable year.

Line 5--Allocation Factor--If dollar amounts for property, receipts and salaries exist in Column B, the total of the three ratios on Line 4 should be divided by 3. If one factor is nonexistent in Column B, then the total of the two ratios, on Line 4 must be divided by 2. If only one factor exists in Column B, then the ratio on Line 4 should be carried to Line 5.

Line 9. See instructions on reverse side of Elective Deduction for Research and Development Facilities form (Form RI-1120RD).

Line 10a. Every taxpayer, at his election, shall be entitled to a deduction with respect to the amortization of the adjusted basis of any treatment facility, as defined in section 44-11-11.1(A) or any hazardous waste recycling, refuse, or treatment facilities as defined in section 44-11-11.2 based on a period of sixty (60) months.

Line 10b. The General Laws provide for a deduction for purposes of computing net income in accordance with Chapter 44-11, for investments in certified venture capital partnerships. Taxpayers claiming this deduction for investments in certified venture capital partnerships must provide copies of certification from the Department of Economic Development of the Venture Capital Partnership.

Line 14. See instructions on applicable credit forms.

Line 15. In the case of a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation qualified to do business in this state, if the actual franchise tax on its authorized capital (Chapter 44-12) exceeds the amount paid with the filing of the return, the Tax Administrator shall mail a notice to the taxpayer of any additional tax due. Franchise tax is calculated at $2.50 per $10,000.00 of authorized capital.

Line 16. Where the property on which an investment tax credit has been allowed is disposed of or ceases to be in qualified use before the end of its useful life or twelve years, a recapture is required). The formula to be used to compute the recapture is: The tax credit taken on property ceasing to qualify times a fraction the numerator of which is the useful life property in months minus the qualified use in months and the denominator of which is the useful life of property in months. If property is disposed of in the initial taxable year, see the specific instructions on Form RI-3468.

Line 18. Enter the total estimated tax payments made with respect to the taxable year, if any, including any credit allowed from the preceding taxable year.

Line 19. Enter the amount of all other tentative tax payments made with respect to the taxable year.

Line 22. Enter on this line the total of (a), (b) and (c):

(a) Interest on the balance due (Line 17 less Line 20) at the rate of 12% per annum. Interest shall accrue from the prescribed date for filing the return (the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the taxable year); and if applicable,

(b) Penalty for failure to file return on time at the rate of five percent (5%) per month not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) as enumerated in the general instruction; and if applicable,

Penalty for failure to pay the tax on time at the rate of five tenths of one percent (0.5%) per month not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) as enumerated in the general instructions; and if applicable,

(c) Interest for underpayment of estimated taxes at the rate of 12% per annum, as enumerated in the general instructions. See chart on reverse side of Form RI-2220.

Line 23. This amount is due and payable with the filing of the return.

Line 25. In the case of an overpayment on Line 24, indicate on this line the amount of the overpayment that is to be credited against the following year's estimated tax. All or any portion of such overpayment may be credited against the estimated tax. The amount on this line may be adjusted by the Tax Administrator.

Line 26. Enter amount of overpayment to be refunded.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FORM RI-1120C AND 1120S

1. WHO MUST FILE:

Domestic and Foreign Corporations: Every business corporation, joint stock company or association exercising corporation functions or otherwise doing business in this state is required to file an annual tax return and is subject to the income tax (minimum $250.00). Domestic corporations and foreign corporations qualified to do business in this state are liable to the franchise tax as provided in 44-12 of the General Laws of 1956, as amended, if it exceeds the tax on income.

Under the provisions of chapter 44-12 of the General Laws of 1956, as amended, corporations which are chartered in Rhode Island and foreign corporations qualified to do business in this state which were not engaged in any business activities in Rhode Island during the last taxable year will be subject to lower franchise tax rates (minimum of $250.00) if tax returns are accompanied by a supplement affidavit certifying the fact of such inactivity.

SUBCHAPTER "S" CORPORATIONS: A small business corporation having an election in effect under subchapter S of The Internal Revenue Code is required to file an annual tax return on Form RI-1120S. Such corporation shall not be subject to the Rhode Island income tax on corporations but is subject to and liable for a franchise tax pursuant to §44-12-1 of the General Laws as last amended (minimum $250.00), except that such corporation shall be subject to the Rhode Island income tax, to the extent of such income as is subject to federal tax under said subchapter S and in those cases will be required to file Form RI-1120C.

If a subchapter S corporation is taxable for federal purposes it must attach Form RI-1120-Schedule S and compute and pay any tax due at the 9% tax rate.

If any shareholder of such corporation is a nonresident during any part of the corporation's taxable year, he shall execute and forward to the corporation, before the original due date of the Rhode Island corporate return, an agreement (Form RI-1120-Schedule SN) which states that he will file a Rhode Island personal income tax return and pay income tax on all income derived from or connected with sources in this state, and such agreement shall be attached to the corporation's Rhode Island return for such taxable year.

In the event (a) that the nonresident shareholder's executed agreement is not attached to the Rhode Island corporate return; or (b) that the agreement set forth above is attached to the corporate return, and thereafter such nonresident shareholder fails to file a timely personal income tax return, then within thirty (30) days of the date of notice by the Tax Administrator to the corporation, the corporation shall remit to the Tax Administrator a portion of the share of the corporation's taxable income which was derived from or attributable to this state, which portion shall be computed at the rate set forth in paragraph 44-11-2(1), of the nonresident shareholder's share of the corporation's income which was derived from or attributable to sources within this state.

"DISC's" (DOMESTIC INTERNATIONAL SALES CORPORATION): DISC's are afforded similar treatment under the Rhode Island Business Corporation Tax Law as is allowed under the federal income tax law. They are required to file an annual tax return on Form RI-1120C and attaching thereto a complete copy including all schedules of the federal form. DISC's are subject to and liable for a franchise tax pursuant to §44-12-1 of the General Laws as last amended (minimum $250.00). Any income to shareholders of DISC's is to be treated as it is treated under federal income tax law, as it existed on December 31, 1984.

"FSC's" (FOREIGN SALES CORPORATION) Qualifying FSC's having a valid election for the entire year are required to file an annual return on Form RI-1120C with a complete copy of all federal schedules. FSC's are subject to and liable for the franchise tax (minimum tax $250.00) under 44-12. Income to FSC shareholders will be treated as it is treated under federal income tax law of January 1, 1985.

2. WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE:

The Form RI-1120C and RI-1120S are due on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the taxable year. Returns must be filed with the State of Rhode Island, Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Suite 9, Providence, RI 02908-5811. A return will be considered timely filed if it is mailed so as to bear a U.S. postmark on or before the applicable due date.

When the last day for filing the Form RI-1120C or RI 1120S falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a Rhode Island legal holiday, the filing shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or Rhode Island legal holiday.

3. EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING:

An automatic six month extension of time for the filing of the required return may be granted provided a Form RI-7004 is filed together with a payment equal to the full amount of tax reasonably estimated to be due for the taxable year based on income, or franchise whichever shall yield the greater tax. Payment of a minimum amount if a larger amount is due will void the extension.

4. PAYMENT OF TAX:

The balance of tax shown on the return to be due must be paid in full with the return. Failure to pay the tax on time will subject the taxpayer to an assessment of interest and penalties.

Interest Generally

Any tax not paid when due is subject to interest at the rates of 12% per annum from the time the tax was originally due.

Penalties-Failure to file returns on time

In case of failure to file a return within the time prescribed by law, or within the extension period, there shall be added to the tax 5% of such tax if delinquency is for not more than one month plus an additional 5% for each additional month or fractional part thereof during which such failure continues not exceeding 25% in the aggregate.

The law provides for the imposition of fines up to $5,000 for failure to file the required returns of filing of false or fraudulent returns.

Penalties-Failure to pay tax on time

In case of failure to pay the tax with the return on or before the date prescribed (determined with regard to any extension of time for payment) there shall be added to the amount shown as tax on such return five-tenths percent (0.5%) of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than one month, plus an additional five-tenths percent (0.5%) for each additional month or fractional part thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25% in the aggregate.

5. RATE OF TAX:

Nine percent (9%) of net income apportioned to Rhode Island; or an annual franchise tax on its authorized capital stock at the rate of $2.50 for each $10,000.00 or fractional part thereof minimum of $250.00, whichever amount shall yield the greatest tax.

In the case of corporations having capital stock of no-par value, $100 per share shall be deemed to be the par value for the purposes of the franchise tax.

6. DECLARATION OF ESTIMATED TAX BY CORPORATIONS:

Every corporation shall file a declaration of its estimated tax for the taxable year if its estimated tax on any basis (income or franchise) for such taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed $500. The entire amount of such estimated tax shall constitute the amount of the advance required to be paid. The due dates and amounts of the installments are as follows: The 15th day of the 3rd month of the taxable year (40%) and the 15th day of the 6th month of the taxable year (60%).

Underpayment-Interest on declaration of estimated tax

In case of any underpayment of the estimate by a corporation there shall be added to the tax as the case may be for the taxable year, an amount determined at the rate of 12% per annum upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment. "The amount of the underpayment" to be paid if the advance payments were equal to eighty percent (80%) of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or, if no return was filed eighty percent (80%) of the tax for such year, over the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

The law provides for the assessment of a penalty of 5% of the tax imposed on such corporations for such taxable year for failure to file required estimated tax payments.

7. CHANGE IN NET INCOME BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT:

Any change in net income for any prior year directly affects the tax liability to the State of Rhode Island and such changes must be reported to the Tax Administrator within 60 days of final adjustment or determination on Form T-70C.

8. SUPPORTING SCHEDULES:

All schedules are to be firmly attached to back of page 3 of the return. Each schedule must be clearly identified with the item which it supports. Write upon one side of the sheet only, so that schedule may be read without detaching from the return. If space permits, more than one schedule may be placed on a single sheet.

9. CONSOLIDATED RETURNS:

An affiliated group, as defined in regulations promulgated by the Tax Administrator, may file a consolidated return for the taxable year provided that all the corporations which constitute such affiliated group at any time during the period for which the return is made and which are subject to taxation under Chapter 44-11 shall consent to the making of such consolidated return. If the affiliated group includes corporations which are not subject to the Rhode Island Business Corporation Tax, these corporations must be excluded from the Rhode Island affiliated group. In filing a consolidated return separate income statements, balance sheets, and if applicable, apportionment schedules for each corporation joining in the filing, must be filed with the consolidated return.

10. INVESTMENT CREDIT

R.I. Law allows an investment tax credit of 2% of the cost or other basis as used for federal income tax purposes of certain property used by the taxpayer in the production of goods by manufacturing, processing or assembling. The credit allowed is 4% for qualified property placed in service January 1, 1994 through December 31, 1997 and 10% for qualified taxpayers from January 1, 1998 and thereafter. Detailed instructions are available on Form RI 3468 which must accompany any return claiming an investment credit. Forms RI 3468 may be obtained at the R.I. Division of Taxation.

11. RENEWABLE ENERGY SYSTEM CREDIT

An eligible person may claim a credit for a photovoltaic system, solar domestic hot water system, active solar space heating system or wind generation system installed in a dwelling in Rhode Island. The credit for systems claimed in 2003 is 10% of the cost of the system. For additional requirements and information, please contact the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, Taxpayer's Assistance Section.

12. EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE AND DEVELOPMENT CREDIT.

A credit is available for 8% of the contribution in excess of $10,000 made to a R.I. institution of higher education and the contribution is to be for the establishment or maintenance of programs of scientific research or education. "Contributions" include the cost or other basis (for federal income tax purposes) in excess of $10,000 of tangible personalty excluding sale discounts and sale-gift arrangements concerning the purchase of equipment. Amounts of unused credit may be carried over for 5 years and documentation of the credit requires a written statement from the institution.

13. ADULT EDUCATION TAX CREDIT.

A R.I. employer may claim a credit of 50% of the costs incurred solely and directly for non-worksite or worksite-based adult education programs. The maximum credit per employee under the new provisions is $300 and the maximum overall credit per taxable year per employer is $5,000. Amounts of credit not deductible in one tax year may not be carried over to the following year and may not reduce the tax to less than $250.00.

14. EMPLOYMENT TAX CREDIT

An employer who participates in the bonus program in conjunction with Chapter 40-6.3 of the general laws shall be eligible for a tax credit as set forth in R.I.G.L. section 40-6.3-4. An employer claiming credit must obtain a written certificate from the Director of Human Services that the employer has complied with the provisions of Chapter 40-6.3 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. This credit may not reduce the tax to less than $250.00. Amounts of unused credit may not be carried over to subsequent years.

15. CHILD DAY-CARE ASSISTANCE AND DEVELOPMENT CREDIT

Effective July 1, 1987, a credit is allowed against the business corporation tax of a taxpayer who pays for or provides child day-care services or that provides real property or dedicates rental space for child day-care services to its employees or to the employees of its commercial tenants.

The child day-care facility must be located in the State of Rhode Island and licensed by the Department of Children and Their Families pursuant to Chapter 42-72.1 of the general laws.

(a) If a taxpayer establishes and/or operates a child day-care facility either alone or in conjunction with one (1) or more other taxpayers, the credit is thirty percent (30%) of the total amount expended during the taxable year if the facility is used primarily by the dependent children of the taxpayers' employees or employees of commercial tenants of the taxpayer during such employee' hours of employment. As used above, the term "amount expended" means the actual sums of money spent, or the cost or other basis for federal tax purposes of real or tangible personal property donated or dedicated to the establishment of a child day-care center. The credit may not reduce the corporation tax to less than $250.00 and the unused balance of the credit may be carried forward for the next five consecutive taxable years.

(b) If a taxpayer provides rental or lease space for child day-care services, the credit is thirty percent (30%) of the total amount foregone in rent or lease payments. The amount foregone shall be the difference between fair market rental and actual rentals. The credit may not reduce the corporation tax to less than $250.00 and the unused balance of the credit may be carried forward for the next five consecutive taxable years. A maximum total credit of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) shall be allowed a taxpayer who qualifies under (a) or (b) above.

(c) If a taxpayer purchases day-care services, the credit is thirty percent (30%) of the amount expended and is limited to sixty percent (60%) of the actual cost of the day-care services purchased for each child. The total credit is limited to thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) annually, may not reduce the corporation tax to less than $250.00 and the unused balance of the credit may not be carried forward.

Taxpayers claiming a child day-care assistance and development credit must complete and attach Form RI 2441. Forms and assistance are available at the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5811.

16. CAPITAL INVESTMENT IN SMALL BUSINESSES

Title 44, Chapter 44-43 of the General Laws provides a deduction for purposes of computing net income under the Rhode Island Business Corporation Tax (Chapter 44-11) for a qualifying investment in a certified venture capital partnership and for credits to entrepreneurs of a qualifying business entity for certain wages paid to employees of such entity.

Corporations claiming deductions for investments in certified venture capital partnerships or entrepreneurial wage credits should contact the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5811 for forms and instructions.

17. ENTERPRISE ZONE TAX BENEFITS

The Enterprise Zone Council enacted by 42-64.3-3.1 has created RI enterprise zones. Various tax benefits may be available to taxpayers in the forms of business credits, special modifications, donation credits and interest credits. Taxpayers wishing to use these benefits, should contact the Division of Taxation for details.
