Dear Taxpayer:

This year tight budgets may severely limit the amount of seasonal help the Tax Division has for the upcoming 2003 tax season. This means slower processing of Rhode Island income tax refunds than in past years.

If you wish to get a timely income tax refund, file your return electronically ("E" file). If you cannot file electronically, make sure your preparation software puts a 2D Barcode on the paper return that you file.

E-Filing or 2D filing are processed vary fast with very little effort. These two methods of filing will insure that you get your refund promptly.

Getting refunds back quickly has always been a priority for the Tax Division. Help us continue getting refund out quickly.

2002 INSTRUCTIONS FOR TAXPAYERS PREPARING RHODE ISLAND RESIDENT INCOME TAX RETURNS – FORM RI-1040

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This booklet contains returns and instructions for filing the 2002 Rhode Island Resident Individual Income Tax Return. Read the instructions in this booklet carefully. For your convenience we have provided "line by line instructions" which will aid you in completing your return. Please print or type so that it will be legible. Check the accuracy of your name(s), address and social security number(s).

RI-1040 Most resident taxpayers will only need to complete the first two pages of Form RI-1040. Those taxpayers claiming modifications to federal adjusted gross income must complete page 2, schedule I. Taxpayers claiming a credit for income taxes paid to another state must complete page 2, schedule III.

Nonresidents and part-year residents will file their Rhode Island Individual Income Tax Returns on Form RI-1040NR. These forms and instructions are available upon request at local libraries, Post Office branches or the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence RI 02908-5801.

Complete your 2002 Federal Income Tax Return first. It is the basis for preparing your Rhode Island income tax return. In general, the Rhode Island income tax is based on your federal taxable income.

Accuracy and attention to detail in completing the return in accordance with these instructions will facilitate the processing of your tax return. You may find the following points helpful in preparing your Rhode Island Income Tax Return.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

Resident individuals – Every resident individual of Rhode Island required to file a federal income tax return must file a Rhode Island individual income tax return (RI-1040).

A resident individual who is not required to file a federal income tax return may be required to file a Rhode Island income tax return if his/her income for the taxable year is in excess of the sum of his/her federal personal exemptions.

"Resident" means an individual who is domiciled in the State of Rhode Island or an individual who maintains a permanent place of abode in Rhode Island and spends more than 183 days of the year in Rhode Island.

For purposes of the above definition, domicile is found to be a place an individual regards as his or her permanent home – the place to which he or she intends to return after a period of absence. A domicile, once established, continues until a new fixed and permanent home is acquired. No change of domicile results from moving to a new location if the intention is to remain only for a limited time, even if it is for a relatively long duration. For a married couple, normally both individuals have the same domicile. Any person asserting a change in domicile must show:

- an intent to abandon the former domicile,
- 2. an intent to acquire a new domicile and
- 3. actual physical presence in a new domicile.

JOINT AND SEPARATE RETURNS

JOINT RETURNS. Generally, if a husband and wife file a joint federal income tax return, they also must file a joint Rhode Island income tax return. However, if either the husband or the wife is a resident and the other is a non-resident, they must file separate returns, unless they elect to file a joint return as if both were residents of Rhode Island. If the resident spouse files separately in RI and a joint federal return is filed for both spouses, the resident spouse must compute income, exemptions and tax as if a separate federal return had been filed.

If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, they may elect to file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

Individuals filing joint Rhode Island income tax returns are both equally liable to pay the tax. They incur what is know as "joint and several liability" for Rhode Island income tax.

SEPARATE RETURNS. Individuals filing separate federal income tax returns must file separate Rhode Island income tax returns.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

Under the provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, the service pay of members of the armed forces can only be subject to income tax by the state of which they are legal residents. Place of legal residence at the time of entry into the service is normally presumed to be the legal state of residence and remains so until legal residence in another state is established and service records are changed accordingly. The Rhode Island income tax is imposed on all the federal taxable income of a resident who is a member of the armed forces, regardless of where such income is received. Military pay received by a nonresident service person stationed in Rhode Island is not subject to Rhode Island income tax. This does not apply to other income derived from Rhode Island sources, e.g., if the service person holds a separate job, not connected with his or her military service, income received from that job is subject to Rhode Island income tax. Income derived from Rhode Island sources by the service person's spouse is subject to Rhode Island income tax.

Internal Revenue Code provisions governing armed forces pay while serving in a "combat zone" or in an area under conditions that qualify for Hostile Fire Pay are applicable for Rhode Island purposes.

DECEASED TAXPAYERS

If the taxpayer died before filing a return for 2002, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space on the return.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased, must file Form RI-1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

WHEN TO FILE

Your return it must be filed not later than April 15.

If the due date of your return falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Rhode Island legal holiday, the return will be due on the next working day.

EXTENSION OF TIME

Any extension of time granted for filing an individual income tax return shall not operate to extend the time for the payment of any tax due on such return.

In General -

- (1) An individual who is required to file a Rhode Island income tax return shall be allowed an automatic four month extension of time to file such return.
- (2) An application must be prepared in duplicate on form RI-4868.
- (3) The original of the application must be filed on or before the date prescribed for the filing of the return of the individual with the Rhode Is land Division of Taxation.
- (4) Such application for extension must show the full amount properly estimated as tax for such taxpayer for such taxable year, and such application must be accompanied by the full remittance of the amount properly estimated as tax which is unpaid as of the date prescribed for the filing of the return.

NOTE: If no payment is required to be made with your Rhode Island extension form and you are filing a federal extension form for the same period of time, then you do not need to submit the Rhode Island form. Attach a copy of the Federal Form 4868 or the approved Federal Form 2688 to your Rhode Island individual income tax return at the time it is submitted.

WHERE TO FILE

Mail your return to: STATE OF RHODE ISLAND Division of Taxation One Capitol Hill Providence RI 02908 – 5806

WHERE TO GET FORMS

As far as practical, tax forms and instructions are mailed directly to taxpayers. Additional forms may be obtained from:

The website http://www.tax.state.ri.us
The faxback system (401) 274-3676
The Division of Taxation (401) 222-1111

Forms may also be obtained at many local libraries and Post Office branches.

MISSING OR INCORRECT FORM W-2

This is the form furnished to you by your employer, which shows the amount of your income tax withheld by them, and a copy of it must accompany your Rhode Island income tax return if you are to receive credit for such withheld tax. Only your employer can issue or correct this form. If you have not received a Form W-2 from your employer by February 15, or if the form which you have received is incorrect, contact your employer as soon as possible.

ROUNDING OFF TO WHOLE DOLLARS

The money items on your return and schedules may be shown in whole dollars. This means that you may eliminate any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 cents to 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

CHANGES IN YOUR FEDERAL TAXABLE INCOME OR FEDERAL TAX LIABILITY

You must report to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation any change or correction in federal taxable income or federal tax liability as reported on your federal income tax return, whether resulting from the filing of an amended federal return or otherwise. Such report must be made within 90 days after filing an amended federal return or final determination of such change by the Internal Revenue Service. Use Form RI-1040X.

ELECTORAL SYSTEM CONTRIBUTION

You may designate a contribution of five dollars ($5), or ten dollars ($10) if married and filing a joint return, to the account for the public financing of the electoral system. The first two dollars ($2), or four dollars ($4) if married and filing a joint return, up to a total of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) collectively for all parties and the nonpartisan account, shall be allocated only to political parties which at the preceding general election, nominated a candidate for governor and such candidate polled at least 5 percent of the entire vote cast in the state for governor. Remaining funds shall be allocated for the public financing of campaigns for governor.

You may make only one designation either by naming a political party or by checking the box for the nonpartisan general account. If you designate:

- a political party which did not receive at least 5% of the entire vote for governor in the preceding general election,
- 2. a nonexistent political party,
- a particular office,
- an individual office holder, or political figure or
- 5. a national party which is not a state party; your electoral system contribution will be credited to the nonpartisan general account. If you designate more than one political party or a political party and also the nonpartisan general account, your contribution will be credited to the first political party named.

CONTRIBUTIONS

You may designate as contributions to the Drug Program Account, the US Olympic Committee, the Rhode Island Organ Transplant Fund, RI Council on the Arts Appropriation, the Non-game Wildlife Appropriation, and the Childhood Disease Victims' Fund.

RHODE ISLAND LOTTERY PRIZES

Winnings and prizes received from the Rhode Island Lottery are taxable under the Rhode Island personal income tax law and are includable in the income of both residents and nonresidents alike.

SIGNATURE

You must sign your Rhode Island income tax return and both husband and wife must sign their joint return. An unsigned return cannot be processed.

Any paid preparer who prepares a taxpayer's return must also sign as "preparer". If a firm or corporation prepares the return, it should be signed in the name of the firm or corporation.

If you wish to allow the Tax Division to contact your paid preparer should questions arise about your return, check the appropriate box above the preparer's name.

Don't need forms mailed to you next year? Taxpayers who pay someone else to prepare their returns probably do not need a booklet mailed to them each year. If you do not need a booklet mailed to you next year, check the box below the signature line. The Division of Taxation will send you a postcard as a reminder to see your preparer. Telling us that you do not need a booklet next year will help us to reduce printing and mailing costs.

PAYMENTS OR REFUNDS

Any tax due must be paid in full with your return. Complete Form RI-1040V. Make check or money order payable to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation and send them with your return to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5806. An amount due of less than one dollar ($1) need not be paid.

A refund will be made if an overpayment of income tax is shown on your return, unless you indicate on your return that such overpayment is to be credited to your estimated tax liability for 2003. No other application for refund is necessary. Please note that no refund can be made unless your return is properly signed. Refunds of less than $1.00 will not be paid unless specifically requested.

ESTIMATED INCOME TAX

If a taxpayer can reasonably expect to owe more than $250 after allowing for withholding tax and/or credits, he or she must make estimated tax payments. Estimated tax payments are made on Form RI-1040ES that has instructions for computing the estimated tax and making payments.

RI-1040H PROPERTY TAX RELIEF CREDIT

Full year Rhode Island residents who meet certain requirements may be able to take advantage of the property tax relief credit. The credit will be applied to decrease your income tax due or increase your refund.

Claim for the property tax relief credit is made on Form RI-1040H. A copy of the Form RI-1040H is included in the income tax booklet or may be obtained at libraries, Post Office branches or from the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5801.

Taxpayers who are required to file a RI-1040 and who qualify for the property tax relief credit should submit Form RI-1040H with their Rhode Island income tax return. However, if you are claiming an automatic extension of time to file your RI income tax return (RI-1040), you are still required to file your RI-1040H no later than April 15. An extension of time for filing your RI-1040H may be allowed at the Tax Administrator's discretion for sickness, absence or other disability.

CREDIT FOR INCOME TAXES PAID TO ANOTHER STATE

Taxpayers deriving income from another state may claim credit for income taxes paid to the other state on that income. To claim the credit complete page 2, schedule III of Form RI-1040 and attach a completed signed copy of the other state(s) return.

NET OPERATING LOSS DEDUCTIONS

The Rhode Island Personal Income Tax law relating to Net Operating Loss deduction (NOL) has been amended by enactment of RIGL §44-30-2.8 and RIGL §44-30-87.1

Under the provisions of section 44-30-2.8, the five (5) year carry back provision for years ending in 2001 and 2002 provided by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 (P.L.107-147) for federal tax purposes shall not be allowed for Rhode Island tax purposes.

If a taxpayer has already filed a return claiming a five (5) year carry back, he/she must file a Rhode Island amended return on form RI-1040X.

Under the provisions of section 44-30-87.1, for losses incurred for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an NOL deduction may not be carried back for Rhode Island personal income tax purposes, but will only be allowed as a carry forward for the number of succeeding years as provided in IRS Sec. 172. A carry forward can only be used on the Rhode Island return to the extent that the carry forward is used on the federal return.

Should you have any questions regarding this notice, please call the Personal Income Tax Section at 222-3911.

BONUS DEPRECIATION

A bill passed disallowing the new federal bonus depreciation for Rhode Island tax purposes. When filing a Rhode Island tax return any bonus depreciation taken for federal purposes must be added back to income as a modification on Schedule 1, line 23b for Rhode Island purposes. In subsequent years, when federal depreciation is less than what previously would have been allowed, the difference may be deducted from income as a modification on Schedule 1, line 23b for Rhode Island purposes.

A separate schedule of deprecation must be kept for Rhode Island purposes. The gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of the asset is to be determined, for Rhode Island purposes, using the Rhode Island depreciation schedule.

EXAMPLE: A company bought equipment after September 11, 2001 that cost $10,000 and had a 10 year life and qualified for 30% bonus depreciation. Depreciation for federal purposes in the first year was $3,700 (30% X $10,000 + 10% x 7,000). Normal depreciation in the first year would have been $1,000. The Company should add back on Schedule I, line 23b of RI-1040 the amount of $2,700 ($3,700 - $1,000). The company should write on line 23b the words "Bonus Depreciation Adjustment". In subsequent years the company should deduct $300 ($1000 -$700) each year while depreciation lasts. The deduction should be on line 24b of RI-1040 and they should write in the words "Bonus Depreciation Adjustment".

If a taxpayer has already filed a return, a form RI-1040X should be filed.

Questions on this procedure should be addressed by calling the Personal Income Tax Section at (401) 222-3911

FAMILY EDUCATION ACCOUNTS

(Tuition Savings Program - Section 529)

A modification decreasing federal adjusted gross income may be claimed for contributions made to Rhode Island's tuition savings program "529 plan". The maximum modification shall not exceed $500, $1,000 if a joint return, regardless of the number of accounts. Taxpayers should claim the modification on line 24b and write in the words "Tuition Savings Program". If the funds are rolled over to a Tuition Savings Plan of another state or are an unqualified withdrawal, recapture is required

Taxpayers may also take a modification decreasing federal adjusted gross income in the amount of any qualified withdrawal or distribution from the "Tuition Saving Program" which is included in federal adjusted gross income. Taxpayers should claim the modification on line 24b and write in the words "Tuition Savings Program".

RI 3468 INVESTMENT TAX CREDIT

Rhode Island law allows an investment tax credit of 4% of the cost or other basis as used for federal income tax purposes of certain property used by the taxpayer in the production of goods by manufacturing, processing or assembling. Special class of businesses by SIC code may claim a 10% credit on qualifying property if they satisfy eligibility criteria as defined by Rhode Island law and regulations.

Detailed instructions are available on Form RI-3468. That form must accompany any return claiming an investment tax credit. Form RI-3468 may be obtained at the Rhode Island Division of Taxation.

RI 6324 ADULT EDUCATION TAX CREDIT

A Rhode Island employer may obtain a credit of 50% of the costs incurred solely and directly for enumerated, worksite based adult education programs. The credit is limited to a maximum of $300 per employee. Amounts of credit not deductible in one tax year may not be carried over to the following year. Taxpayers claiming the credit should contact the Rhode Island Division of Taxation for details and instructions.

RI 321 JUVENILE RESTITUTION CREDIT

The employer of a juvenile hired pursuant to section 14-1-32.1 is entitled to receive an income tax credit of 10% of the amount of wages paid to that juvenile annually. The credit shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) annually.

An employer claiming a tax credit for wages paid under this program must attach to the income tax return a certification from the Department of Children, Youths and Families, Juvenile Probation and Parole supporting the claim. No credit will be allowed without such certification.

RI-8095 EMPLOYMENT TAX CREDIT

An employer who participates in the bonus program in conjunction with Chapter 40-6.3 of the general laws shall be eligible for a tax credit as set forth in R.I.G.L. section 40-6.3-4. T-205P Individual Consumer's Use/Sales Tax Return

What is a Use Tax?

A Use Tax is a tax on the use of tangible personal property in a state where the property has not been subject to the sales tax. Rhode Island Use Tax applies when merchandise purchased outside of Rhode Island is brought into Rhode Island. Sales and use taxes are complementary taxes and are assessed at the same rate. In Rhode Island the sales and use tax rate is 7%. The Rhode Island Use Tax is most often due when merchandise subject to the sales tax in Rhode Island is purchased from an out-of-state vendor who did not collect the Rhode Island tax and the property is subsequently used in this state. Common examples of transactions from which use tax liability may arise are mail order catalog sales, and toll-free "800" purchases and purchases made over the internet.

What is taxable?

The same items that are subject to the Rhode Island Sales Tax are subject to the use tax. Some typical examples of taxable items are jewelry, computers and electronic equipment. Clothing and footwear are not taxable.

How do I file and pay?

To report use tax, please complete the Rhode Island Individual Consumer's Use/Sales Tax return (T-205P) found on page 4 of Form RI-1040.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

If you are filing a Rhode Island income tax return and claiming a property tax relief credit, attach RI-1040H to your Rhode Island income tax return. Your property tax relief credit will decrease any income tax due or increase any income tax refund. If you are not required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, Form RI-1040H may be filed without attaching it to a Rhode Island income tax return.

WHO MAY QUALIFY - To qualify for the property tax relief credit you must meet all of the following conditions:

a) If you are 65 years of age or older on December 31, 2002 or a disabled person who has received social security disability payments during 2002, or a disabled person who has received social security payments during 2002, you will receive the full amount of property tax relief for which you qualify. However, if you are not 65 years of age or not disabled, your claim for property tax relief will be held until June 30, 2003. At that time, the Tax Administrator shall make payments to each such claimant proportionately, based on the unexpended appropriation, pursuant to R.I.G.L. Chapter 44-

- b) You must have been a legal resident of Rhode Island for the entire calendar year 2002.
- c) Your household income must have been $30,000.00 or less.
- d) You must have lived in a household or rented a dwelling that was subject to property taxes.
- e) You must be current on property tax due on your homestead for all prior years and on any current installments.

WHO MAY CLAIM CREDIT - If you meet all of the qualifications outlined above, you should complete Form RI-1040H to determine if you are entitled to a credit. Only one person of a household may claim the credit. If you and one or more qualified individuals each rent or own a homestead within a single dwelling, you may each file a claim. The right to file a claim does not survive a person's death; therefore a claim filed on behalf of a deceased person cannot be allowed. If the claimant dies after having filed a timely claim, the amount thereof will be disbursed to another member of the household as determined by the Tax Administrator.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE - Your property tax relief daim should be filed as soon as possible after December 31, 2002. However, no claim for the year 2002 will be allowed unless such claim is filed by April 15, 2003. However, an extension for filling may be allowed at the Tax Administrator's discretion for sickness, absence or other disability. Mail your property tax relief claim to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5806.

IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

What is meant by "homestead" - The term "homestead" means your Rhode Island dwelling, whether owned or rented, and so much of the land around it as is reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, but not exceeding one acre. It may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling, a multipurpose building or another shelter in which people live. It may be an apartment, a rented room, a mobile home or a farm.

What is meant by a "household" - "household" means one or more persons occupying a dwelling unit and living as a single nonprofit housekeeping unit. Household does not mean bona fide lessees, tenants or roomers and borders on contract.

What is meant by "household income" - "household income" means all income received both taxable and nontaxable by all persons of a household in a calendar year while members of the household.

What is meant by "rent paid for occupancy only" - The term "rent paid for occupancy only" means the gross rent paid only for the right of occupying your homestead. If you rented furnished quarters, or if utilities were furnished, such as heat, electricity, etc., then you must reduce the amount of gross rent by the reasonable rental value (not cost) of the furniture and the reasonable value of such utilities as were furnished.

LIMITATIONS ON CREDIT

Under the provisions of Section 44-33-16, a claim for relief shall exclude all taxes or rent paid with public assistance funds. The maximum amount of credit allowable under Chapter 44-33, Property Tax Relief Act, for calendar year 2002 is $250.00. In event that more than one person owns the residence, the taxes will be divided by the owner's share.

However, if you entered amounts on line 14, annualized income installments, and the amounts on line 17 are zero (0) or less for all installment periods, then enter zero (0) on line 21 and file this form with your return.
