Election To Deduct Qualified Terminable Interest Property Under IRC Section 2056(b)(7)

If a trust (or other property) meets the requirements of qualified terminable interest property under IRC section 2056(b)(7), and

- a. The trust or other property is listed on Schedule M, and
b. The value of the trust (or other property) is entered in whole or in part as a deduction on Schedule M, then unless the executor specifically identifies the trust (all or a fractional portion or percentage) or other property to be excluded from the election, the executor shall be deemed to have made an election to have such trust (or other property) treated as qualified terminable interest property under IRC section 2056(b)(7):

If less than the entire value of the trust (or other property) that the executor has included in the gross estate is entered as a deduction on Schedule M, the executor shall be considered to have made an election only as to a fraction of the trust (or other property). The numerator of the fraction is equal to the amount of the trust (or other property) deducted on Schedule M. The denominator is equal to the total value of the trust (or other property).

Election To Deduct Qualified Domestic Trust Property Under IRC Section 2056A

If a trust meets the requirements of a qualified domestic trust under IRC section 2056A(a) and this return is filed no later than 1 year after the time prescribed by law (including extensions) for filing the return, and

- a. The entire value of a trust or trust property is listed on Schedule M, and
b. The entire value of the trust or trust property is entered as a deduction on Schedule M,

Then unless the executor specifically identifies the trust to be excluded from the election, the executor shall be deemed to have made an election to have the entire trust treated as qualified domestic trust property.
