Rhode Island Department of Revenue Division of Taxation

Rebuild Rhode Island Tax Credit

Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 2026

Rhode Island General Laws (R.I. Gen. Laws) § 42-64.20-9(e) requires the Rhode Island Division of Taxation to report in the aggregate the following information by November 1st of each year.

(1) The number of total full-time employees employed at the development;

(2) The total project cost;

(3) The total cost of materials or products purchased from Rhode Island businesses; and

(4) Such other reasonable information deemed necessary by the secretary of commerce.

The table below provides the aggregate figures for the information provided pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-64.20-9(a)[1] for the Rebuild Rhode Island Tax Credit program for the fiscal year of July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026.

Rebuild Rhode Island Tax Credit For the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 2026
Number of Applicants Receiving Rebuild RI Credit	6
Reported number of full-time employees employed at the developments	2,840
Reported project costs	$1,052,214,357
Cost of materials or products purchased from RI businesses	$152,031,107

Neena S. Savage
Tax Administrator
November 1, 2026

[1] This information is required to be reported by each applicant receiving credits under R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-64.20. This report is based on the information available as of November 1, 2026, and may be updated or amended if additional information becomes available.

Due to the requirement that the information under R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-64.20-9(a) be self-reported to the Division by the approved applicant(s) so the Division may aggregate and post the information provided by all respondents in a report on the Division's website, the information self-reported is not subject to verification before being aggregated and posted.