2007 RI-1040X AMENDED RHODE ISLAND INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN INSTRUCTIONS

INSTRUCTIONS

PURPOSE OF FORM

Use this form to correct form RI-1040EZ, RI-1040 or RI-1040NR. You must file a separate Form RI-1040X for each year you are amending. DO NOT use this form to file an amended RI-1041. To amend Form RI-1041 make any changes on RI-1041 and check the amended box.

WHO MUST FILE AN AMENDED RETURN

Rhode Island Form 1040X must be completed by those taxpayers who have to correct their Rhode Island return as a result of a change or correction on their federal income tax return; the filing of an amended federal income tax return; the filing of an amended out-of-state return or a notification of a change or correction on another state's personal income tax return.

WHEN TO FILE

Federal Audit Changes: If the Internal Revenue Service increases the amount of your federal taxable income for any reason, you should file an Amended Rhode Island Income Tax Return within 90 days after the final determination of the change.

Refunds: Generally a claim for refund must be filed within 3 years from the time the return was filed or 2 years from the time the tax was paid, whichever is later. In either case, the refund will be limited to the amount of payments made within the allowable period.

Property Tax Relief Credit: If you are filing an amended return to claim the property tax relief credit, you must file the return no later than April 15, 2008. An extension of time may be allowed at the Tax Administrator's discretion for sickness, absence or other disability.

ROUNDING OFF TO WHOLE DOLLARS

The money items on your return and schedules may be shown in whole dollars. This means that you may eliminate any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 cents to 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

DECEASED TAXPAYERS

If the taxpayer died before filing a Rhode Island Amended Income Tax Return, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space on the return.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased, must file Form RI-1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

COMPLETE YOUR 2007 AMENDED FEDERAL INCOME TAX RETURN FIRST

The Federal Amended Individual Income Tax Return is the basis for preparing your Amended Rhode Island Individual Income Tax Return. In general, the Rhode Island income tax is based on your federal taxable income. Accuracy and attention to detail in completing the return in accordance with these instructions will facilitate the processing of your tax return.

Name(s), Address and Social Security Number(s)

Make sure the name(s), address and social security number(s) on the return are correct. Incorrect entries could delay the processing of your return.

Lines A, B & C - Additional Information

Line A: If the address listed is different than the address used on your original return, indicate the address used on your original return. If the address is the same as above, write "SAME"

Lines B & C: Check the "YES" box to any of the questions that apply to you.

Lines D & E - Filing Status

Check the appropriate boxes to indicate your filing status on your original return and your amended return. Generally your filing status for Rhode Island is the same as for federal income tax purposes.

JOINT RETURNS: Generally, if a husband and wife file a joint federal income tax return, they also must file a joint Rhode Island income tax return. However, if either the husband or the wife is a resident and the other is a non-resident, they must file separate returns, unless they elect to file a joint return as if both were residents of Rhode Island. If the resident spouse files separately in RI and a joint federal return is filed for both spouses, the resident spouse must compute income, exemptions and tax as if a separate federal return had been filed.

If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, they may elect to file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

Individuals filing joint Rhode Island income tax returns are both equally liable to pay the tax. They incur what is known as "joint and several liability" for Rhode Island income tax.

Column A - lines 1 through 18F

Enter the dollar amounts as they appear on your original filing or on your most recent filing.

Column B - lines 1 through 18F

Column C - lines 1 through 18F

Enter the corrected amounts on the appropriate lines.

Enter the Federal AGI from Federal Form 1040X, line 1, column C.

RI-1040 or RI-1040NR: Enter the amount of Rhode Island modifications to Federal AGI from RI-1040 or RI-1040NR, page 2, schedule I, line 25. You only need to attach the schedule if you are reporting a change to the amount listed on the original return.

Line 3 - Modified Federal AGI

Combine lines 1 and 2. Add net increases or subtract net decreases.

Line 4 - Deductions

Enter your RI standard deduction or amount from Federal Schedule A, line 29, whichever is greater.

Single	$5,350
Married Joint	$8,900
Qualifying Widow(er)	$8,900
Married Separate	$4,450
Head of Household	$7,850

If you or your spouse were age 65 or older (born BEFORE 01/02/1943) or blind at the end of 2007, go to the RI Standard Deduction Schedule A on page 7 to determine the amount of your standard deduction. If someone else can claim you on their return, you must complete the RI Standard Deduction Schedule B on page 7 to determine the amount of your standard deduction. You only need to attach the schedule if you are reporting a change to the amount listed on the original return.

If you itemize your deductions and line 3, column C is more than $156,400 ($78,200 if married filing separate), you need to recalculate your itemized deductions based on your modified federal adjusted gross income. Complete the RI Itemized Deduction Schedule C on page 7. You only need to attach the schedule if you are reporting a change to the amount listed on the original return.

If you are filing married filing joint or married filing separate, you may itemize your deductions on your RI return even if you do not itemize on your federal return. Calculate your itemized deductions on your Federal Schedule A. Compare the amount to your RI standard deduction and enter the larger amount.

Line 5 - Subtract line 4 from line 3

Line 6 - Exemptions

Exemption Amount: Multiply the number of exemptions in the box by $3,400.

However, if line 3, column C is more than $117,300, you may need to recalculate your exemptions based on your modified federal adjusted gross income (see worksheet below to compute your exemption amount).

Attach a copy of Form RI-6251 to your RI-1040X only if you are reporting a change to the amount on this line.

However, if you have claimed modifications to federal adjusted gross income, you may need to recalculate your federal alternative minimum tax based on your modified federal adjusted gross income.
