COMBINED REPORTING:

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, a business which is treated as a C corporation for federal income tax purposes, and which is part of a combined group engaged in a single or common business enterprise – a “unitary” business – must file a combined return with Rhode Island. Under mandatory unitary combined reporting, RIGL 44-11-4.1, an entity treated as a C corporation for federal income tax purposes must report on its Rhode Island return not only its own income, but also the combined income of the other corporations, or affiliates, that are part of a combined group under common ownership and part of a unitary business.

An affiliated group of C corporations, as defined in IRC § 1504, may also elect to be treated as a combined group with respect to the combined reporting requirement imposed by Rhode Island General Laws. When such an election is made, the entities that appear on the federal consolidated return shall be considered a combined group for Rhode Island corporate income tax purposes.

The combined group shall file by checking the box for Combined Return on the 2017 RI-1120C form, and including a Schedule CRS for each member of the group. If a federal consolidated group has made the election to be treated as a combined group with respect to the Rhode Island combined reporting requirement, they may do so by checking the box for Consolidated Election on the Schedule CRS for each member.

Line 1 - Receipts Factor
1a) 100% allocation to Rhode Island of the gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property sold in the regular course of business where Rhode Island (or any other state or place) is the place of origin and Rhode Island is the destination. Sales of tangible personal property are in Rhode Island if the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state regardless of the free on board (F.O.B.) point or other conditions of the sale.

Gross income from services is attributed to Rhode Island if the benefits from the services are received in Rhode Island.

Pursuant to R.I.G.L. 44-11-14(b)(1)(i)(B), gross sales of tangible personal property where shipments are made from an office, store, warehouse, factory or other place of storage in this state and the taxpayer is not taxed in the state of purchase must now be included in the Receipts section of the Rhode Island apportionment column. This gross receipts amount must be listed separately as shown on the apportionment schedule.

1b) Dividend income. This amount should not be included in 1h.

1c) Interest income. This amount should not be included in 1h.

1h) Gross income from all other receipts includes income from all other sources (not listed above) and includes (but is not limited to) receipts from patents, royalties, copyrights, commissions, dividends and interest. Gross income from royalties is attributable to Rhode Island to the extent that the patent or copyright is used in this state by the person paying royalties to the taxpayer. A patent is used in Rhode Island to the extent that it is employed in fabrication, manufacturing, production or other processing in Rhode Island or to the extent that a patented product is produced in Rhode Island. A copyright is used in Rhode Island to the extent that printing or other publication originates in Rhode Island. Accordingly, all such gross income should be included in Schedule G, line 1h, Column A. For corporations organized under Rhode Island laws, all gross income from interest and dividends must be shown on Schedule G, lines 1b & 1c, Column A.
