GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

erty tax IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

If you are filing a Rhode Island income tax return and claiming a property tax relief credit, attach RI-1040H to your Rhode Island income tax return. Your property tax relief credit will decrease any income tax due or increase any income tax refund. If you are not required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, Form RI-1040H may be filed without attaching it to a Rhode Island income tax return.

WHO MAY QUALIFY

To qualify for the property tax relief credit you must meet all of the following conditions:

- a) You must have been a legal resident of Rhode Island for the entire calendar year 2008.
- b) Your household income must have been $30,000.00 or less.
- c) You must have lived in a household or rented a dwelling that was subject to property taxes.
- d) You must be current on property tax due on your homestead for all prior years and on any current installments.

WHO MAY CLAIM CREDIT

If you meet all of the qualifications outlined above, you should complete Form RI-1040H to determine if you are entitled to a credit. Only one person of a household may claim the credit. If you and one or more qualified individuals each rent or own a homestead within a single dwelling, you may each file a claim. The right to file a claim does not survive a person's death; therefore a claim filed on behalf of a deceased person cannot be allowed. If the claimant dies after having filed a timely claim, the amount thereof will be disbursed to another member of the household as determined by the Tax Administrator.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE

Your property tax relief claim should be filed as soon as possible after December 31, 2008. However, no claim for the year 2008 will be allowed unless such claim is filed by April 15, 2009. However, an extension for filing may be allowed at the Tax Administrator's discretion for sickness, absence or other disability. Mail your property tax relief claim to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation - One Capitol Hill - Providence, RI 02908-5806.

- What is meant by "homestead" The term "homestead" means your Rhode Island dwelling, whether owned or rented, and so much of the land around it as is reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, but not exceeding one acre. It may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling, a multipurpose building or another shelter in which people live. It may be an apartment, a rented room, a mobile home or a farm.
- What is meant by a "household" The term "household" means one or more persons occupying a dwelling unit and living as a single nonprofit house-keeping unit. Household does not mean bona fide lessees, tenants or roomers and borders on contract.
- What is meant by a "dependent" The term "dependent" means any person living in the household who is under the age of 18 who can be claimed by someone else on their tax return.
- What is meant by "household income" The term "household income" means all income received both taxable and nontaxable by all persons of a household in a calendar year while members of the household.
- What is meant by "rent paid for occupancy only" The term "rent paid for occupancy only" means the gross rent paid only for the right of occupying your homestead. If you rented furnished quarters, or if utilities were furnished, such as heat, electricity, etc., then you must reduce the amount of gross rent by the reasonable rental value (not cost) of the furniture and the reasonable value of such utilities as were furnished.

LIMITATIONS ON CREDIT

Under the provisions of Section 44-33-16, a claim for relief shall exclude all taxes or rent paid with public assistance funds. The maximum amount of credit allowable under Chapter 44-33, Property Tax Relief Act, for calendar year 2008 is $300.00. In event that more than one person owns the residence, the taxes will be divided by the owner's share.

RENTED LAND

If you live on land that is rented and your home or trailer is subject to property tax. Multiply the amount of rent you paid in 2008 by 20% and add the amount to the property tax paid. Then enter the total on RI-1040H, line 10. Example:

Rent (3,600 X 20%)	720.00
Property Tax+	2,000.00
Amount to be entered on line 10	2,720.00

2008 INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING RI-1040S GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Complete your 2008 Federal Income Tax Return first.

It is the basis for preparing your Rhode Island income tax return. In general, the Rhode Island income tax is based on your federal taxable income.

Accuracy and attention to detail in completing the return in accordance with these instructions will facilitate the processing of your tax return. You may find the following points helpful in preparing your Rhode Island Income Tax Return.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

RESIDENT INDIVIDUALS – Every resident individual of Rhode Island required to file a federal income tax return must file a Rhode Island individual income tax return (RI-1040 or RI-1040S).

A resident individual who is not required to file a federal income tax return may be required to file a Rhode Island income tax return if his/her income for the taxable year is in excess of the sum of his/her federal personal exemptions.

"Resident" means an individual who is domiciled in the State of Rhode Island or an individual who maintains a permanent place of abode in Rhode Island and spends more than 183 days of the year in Rhode Island.

For purposes of the above definition, domicile is found to be a place an individual regards as his or her permanent home – the place to which he or she intends to return after a period of absence. A domicile, once established, continues until a new fixed and permanent home is acquired. No change of domicile results from moving to a new location if the intention is to remain only for a limited time, even if it is for a relatively long duration. For a married couple, normally both individuals have the same domicile.

Any person asserting a change in domicile must show:

- (1) an intent to abandon the former domicile,
- (2) an intent to acquire a new domicile and
- (3) actual physical presence in a new domicile.

JOINT AND SEPARATE RETURNS

JOINT RETURNS: Generally, if a husband and wife file a joint federal income tax return, they also must file a joint Rhode Island income tax return. However, if either the husband or the wife is a resident and the other is a non-resident, they must file separate returns, unless they elect to file a joint return as if both were residents of Rhode Island. If the resident spouse files separately in RI and a joint federal return is filed for both spouses, the resident spouse must compute income, exemptions and tax as if a separate federal return had been filed.

If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, they may elect to file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

Individuals filing joint Rhode Island income tax returns are both equally liable to pay the tax. They incur what is known as "joint and several liability" for Rhode Island income tax.

SEPARATE RETURNS: Individuals filing separate federal income tax returns must file separate Rhode Island income tax returns.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

Under the provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, the service pay of members of the armed forces can only be subject to income tax by the state of which they are legal residents. Place of legal residence at the time of entry into the service is normally presumed to be the legal state of residence and remains so until legal residence in another state is established and service records are changed accordingly. The Rhode Island income tax is imposed on all the federal taxable income of a resident who is a member of the armed forces, regardless of where such income is received. Military pay received by a nonresident service person stationed in Rhode Island is not subject to Rhode Island income tax. This does not apply to other income derived from Rhode Island sources, e.g., if the service person holds a separate job, not connected with his or her military service, income received from that job is subject to Rhode Island income tax. Income derived from Rhode Island sources by the service person's spouse is subject to Rhode Island income tax.

Internal Revenue Code provisions governing armed forces pay while serving in a "combat zone" or in an area under conditions that qualify for Hostile Fire Pay are applicable for Rhode Island purposes.

DECEASED TAXPAYERS

If the taxpayer died before filing a return for 2008, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space on the return.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased, must file Form RI-1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

WHEN TO FILE

Your return must be filed not later than April 15, 2009. If the due date of your return falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Rhode Island legal holiday, the return will be due on the next working day.

EXTENSION OF TIME

Any extension of time granted for filing an individual income tax return shall not operate to extend the time for the payment of any tax due on such return.

In General -(1) An individual who is required to file a Rhode Island income tax return shall be allowed an automatic six month extension of time to file such return. (2) An application must be prepared in duplicate on form RI-4868.

(3) The original of the application must be filed on or before the date prescribed for the filing of the return of the individual with the Rhode Island Division of Taxation.

(4) Such application for extension must show the full amount properly estimated as tax for such taxpayer for such taxable year, and such application must be accompanied by the full remittance of the amount properly estimated as tax which is unpaid as of the date prescribed for the filing of the return.

NOTE: If no payment is required to be made with your Rhode Island extension form and you are filing a federal extension form for the same period of time, then you do not need to submit the Rhode Island form. Attach a copy of the Federal Form 4868 or the electronic acknowledgement you receive from the IRS to your Rhode Island individual income tax return at the time it is submitted.

Any paid preparer who prepares a taxpayer's return must also sign as "preparer". If a firm or corporation prepares the return, it should be signed in the name of the preparer on behalf of the firm or corporation.

If you wish to allow the Tax Division to contact your paid preparer should questions arise about your return, check the appropriate box above the preparer's name.

Don't need forms mailed to you next year? Taxpayers who pay someone else to prepare their returns probably do not need a booklet mailed to them each year. If you do not need a booklet mailed to you next year, check the box below the signature line. Telling us that you do not need a booklet next year will help us to reduce printing and mailing costs.

The remaining funds shall be allocated for the public financing of campaigns for governor.

Rhode Island Use Tax applies when merchandise purchased outside of Rhode Island is brought into Rhode Island. Sales and use taxes are complementary taxes and are assessed at the same rate. In Rhode Island, the sales and use tax rate is 7%. The Rhode Island Use Tax is most often due when merchandise subject to the sales tax in Rhode Island is purchased from an out-ofstate vendor who did not collect the Rhode Island tax and the property is subsequently used in this state. Common examples of transactions from which use tax liability may arise are mail order catalog sales and toll-free "800" purchases and purchases made over the internet.
