

2022 RI-1040ES Rhode Island Resident and Nonresident Estimated Payment Coupons

WHO MUST MAKE ESTIMATED PAYMENTS

Every resident and nonresident individual shall make estimated Rhode Island personal income tax payments if his or her estimated Rhode Island personal income tax can be reasonably expected to be $250 or more in excess of any credits allowable against his or her tax, whether or not he or she is required to file a federal estimated tax for such year.

JOINT RETURNS

Married individuals may make joint payments as if they were one taxpayer, in which case the liability with respect to the estimated tax shall be joint and several. No joint payments may be made if the married individuals are separated under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance. If joint payments are made, but the married individuals determine their Rhode Island income taxes separately, the estimated tax, for such period, may be treated as the estimated tax of either individual, or may be divided between them, as they may elect.

CHANGES IN INCOME

Even though on April 15, 2022 you do not expect your tax to be large enough to require making estimated payments, a change in income may require you to make estimated payments later.

HOW TO ESTIMATE YOUR TAX FOR 2022

Your 2022 estimated income tax may be based upon your 2021 income tax liability. If you wish to compute your 2022 estimated income tax, use the enclosed estimated tax worksheet.

CREDIT FOR INCOME TAX OVERPAYMENT

Your credit for income tax overpayment from your 2021 Rhode Island income tax return may be deducted from the first installment of your 2022 estimated tax, and any excess credit from succeeding installments.

CHARGE FOR UNDERPAYMENT OF INSTALLMENTS OF ESTIMATED TAX

An interest charge is imposed for underpayment of an installment of estimated tax. The Rhode Island income tax law follows similar provisions of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to exceptions. Such charge on any unpaid installment shall be computed on the amount by which the actual payments and credits applied to the tax are less than 80% of such installment at the time it is due. If it appears there was an underpayment of any installment of estimated tax, you may attach Form RI-2210 (if any of the exceptions apply) to your Rhode Island income tax return explaining why an additional charge should not be made.

PENALTIES

The law imposes penalties and interest charges for failing to pay estimated tax due or for making false or fraudulent statements.
